SHALL THE TAXPAYERS HAVE A SAY SCHOOL DAYS SECRET SHALL BY DWIG Ve TOWNE GOSSIP AS TO HOW THEIR MONEY SHALL GO?

AS TO HOW THEIR MONEY SHALL GO?

If the county force and commiscients believe they can, and the tapapyers' money as they are it, without believe that the tapapyers' money as they are it, without believe the force of the people of 21 Paso. But for the effects of the chamber of commerce, the bond issue for road building in El Paso county nevey would have carried, yet advice from that body is absolutely rejected. The biggest taxpayers, in the city, as represented in the chamber of commerce, and yet of the property of the large the people that the part of the control of the chamber of commerce, and the properties of the control of t ther.

The Herald supported the bond insue because it believed the county needed the roads.

Citizens believed the same thing.

The Herald and the veters felt that the county judge and the county commissioners would listen to the tarpayers and try to give the very best possible parament for the money. Unless there is a change in the way the commissioners spend the rest of the road money, The Herald here and now pledges itself to the taxpayers of the city to opicon any sort of a bond issue that the present county judge and county commissioners may ask for in the future.

When men like J. A. Eraksner, H. B. Stevens, Z. T. White, M. A. Warner, Jos. A. Wright, W. D. Wise and A. Schwartz sik for a conference with the county commissioners with the county commissioners with the county commissioners with the county commissioners and are not even given a hearing, it is time to ask if a new set of commissioners is not needed.

Solf colorer and insulationers is not needed.
